Two sixteens will qualify for match cups to open the annual tournament of the Garden City Golf Club to-day. There were many of the players expected to start on the course yesterday, the most prominent being Thomas M. Sherman, erstwhile of Utica and now of Washington, and Walter J Travis. The records show that Travis has won the first cup six times in P. E. Watson in the final, who had won the Jerome D. Travis is again an entrant and also Fred Herreshoff, with Miss Harriot S. Curtis, secretary pro-tem of the Woman's Eastern Golf Associa-tion, has sent out the conditions of the championship meeting at the Huntington Valley Country Club. There will be seventy-two holes of medal play, extending over four days, the monotony of any stoady grind being relieved by special contests. Eighteen holes of the championship race will be decided each morning, a driv-ing contest filling in the first afternoon and handicaps the succeeding afternoons. The dates are June 8, 9, 10 and 11.

A strong breeze blew along the court and it suited Miss Pagenstecker, who lobbed softly, while when Mrs. Schmitz hit with any sort of ginger the ball went out over every time, especially when she played with the wind. Miss Pagenstecker serves with an underhand stroke which is peculiar, but it is effective, for when she got the first ball within bounds it went low over the net and was hard to return. However, Miss Pagenstecker gained the first set at 6-2 and it looked hopeless for the long mark opponent. But Mrs. Schmitz gradually learned the tactics of her opponent and by sheer hard work gained the next set, 6-2.

The deciding set was very keen. They were even after four games, but Mrs. Good start, son
